Tuition and Costs:

Tuition for the program is €4.800. Students take 5 lecture/critique/demonstration classes each week, with an additional 11 hours each week in lab time. Each lecture/critique class is 3 hours long. Total class time each week is 26 hours. The course is a total of eight weeks long. Anticipated supplies cost is US$500. Tuition is subject to change with one full term's notice.

Refund Policy:

Notwithstanding any right for damage compensation of other statutory or contractual rights of MASE, in case of withdrawal, termination or dismissal, the paid tuition is only subject to refunding as follows: (a) Withdrawal, termination or dismissal two weeks before start of any class of the quarter, or earlier - 90% refund (10% retention for administrative costs). (b) No such refund for the quarter is due afterwards. MASE retains the right to balance any refunding against claims from breach of this Contract or of tort against MASE, its teachers or other students. For any amount not refunded under the terms above, the Student has the right to evidence that the damage and/or expenses of MASE are lower than such amount, and claim that the difference has to be refunded.

Copyrights:

Any work a student produces while at school is the property of the Miami Ad School Europe. The written permission of the Miami Ad School Europe is required before passing any such work to third parties. Distribution of instructional material outside of school faculty, staff or student body is prohibited.

Please Note:

While course content is subject to change, no additional costs will be passed on to the student. Course schedules may change, due to faculty commitments outside of school. As a professional school we require our students to demonstrate a mature and serious approach to their education. Students who are habitually absent or late, who show immature behavior or disrespect for faculty, staff, classmates or property will be terminated from the school. Nonpayment of costs, and insufficient progress are also grounds for termination. Miami Ad School Europe reserves the right to make changes in course syllabi and content without prior notice.

Insurance:

Students are responsible for their own belongings. Miami Ad School strongly recommends that students have both property and medical insurance.

Placement Assistance:

While we maintain a vigorous placement assistance program, we cannot guarantee employment for our graduates.

Graduation:

Prior to graduation, students must pass a "review" from a panel of professionals, certifying the student is at an acceptable professional standard. A diploma is awarded after successfully passing the final review. Failure to pass may require additional training.

Class Schedules:

Schedules will vary from quarter to quarter, dependent upon faculty workload in their professional positions. Students can expect to take classes in the evening, afternoon or morning, although every effort will be made to accommodate the student's work schedule.
